1.2.18 Player Specials....1.2.19 NFL Player Prop Injury

Sports Bet Montana reserves the sole right, at our discretion, to void any single NFL player proposition wager when a player exits a game during the first quarter due to an officially reported injury and does not return to play for the remainder of the game. The decision to void a wager under this parameter is determined strictly on a case-by-case basis using official NFL box scores and injury reports. Sports Bet Montana maintains the authority over final wager settlement.

This parameter is applied, but not limited to NFL player proposition wagers placed within the following NFL events:

1. Monday Night Football
2. Thursday Night Football
3. Sunday Night Football
4. Holiday Games (Thanksgiving Day & Christmas Day)
5. NFL Playoffs
6. Super Bowl

For parlays, if an eligible player prop is voided under this parameter, the affected selection in question will be settled at odds of 1.00 (void) and the remainder of the parlay will settle according to new, revised odds.

For Same Game Parlays, the entire SGP wager will be deemed void when one or more selections are settled as void.
